hom em Opp Religious Visir - Potomae and Sarepta Bydges and Marley Encampment, LO. O. F., of this city, paid a fraternal visit last night, on a special train of cars, to Friendship Lodge, No. 12, I. O. O. F., of Washington. The visitors were met at Williard's Hotel, at eight o'clock, by a committee of the Friendship Lodge, who escorted them to their hall in the First Ward, where, after a formal reception, ou and several hours spent in social conversation, they enjoyed the delights of a magnificent collation which had been prepared for them -The Alexandrians returned to their homes about one o'clock this morning, highly pleased with their visit.

THE POOR OF THE CITY .- Considering the impoverished condition of the city the Mayor's efforts to assist the poor curing the winter have certainly been very gratifying in their results. He has secured two hundred cords of wood, the issuing of which will be commenced on or about Monday, the 16th instant; and the Soup House, from which will be distributed a large supply of excellent nutriment, will, as has already been stated, be opened on Monday next, the 9th instant.

To SUBSCRIBERS .- We shall make, t) morrow, our semi-monthly collections for subscriptions to the Gazette, in the western portion of the city. Our subscribers will much oblige us. by settling up for the current month, and those in arrears would also, greatly oblige us, by paying the back dues. We have to do a cash business. The sums due us are all small, and, will, generally give no inconvenience to pay-and every one will scknowledge, that the worth of the money is earned by the publisher.

WASHINGTON AMUSEMENTS .- A number of Alexandrians availed themselves last night of the opportunity afforded by the visit of the Odd Fellows to Washington, on a special train of cars on the Washington and Alexandria railroad, to attend the different plac s of public amusement in that city. A-regular nightly train over the Washington and Alexandria railroad would, it is stated by those who profess to know what they are talking about, soon become popular, and would not sink money.

M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH, FAIR -The fair for the benefit of the Sunday School attached to the M. E. Church, South, was brought to a close last night—the articles then remaining on hand being disposed of by auction. The fair was an entire success-the pecuniary receipts having equalled the most sanguine ex-

2RD WARD CONSERVATIVE MEETING. -At the request of the Principal of the school kept in the hall of the Hydraulion Engine House, it is stated that the announcement that a Conservative meeting would be held in that hall, on Saturday night, was made without his consent, and that no such meeting will be held there.

UUFOUNDED RUMOR. - The rumor prevalent in Georgetown on Monday last, that Mr. Faulkner, a hand on board the tug-boat Katie Wise, had fallen overboard at Mathia's Point, on the Potomac, and been drowned, is without foundation. Mr. Faulkner is alive, and is on duty aboard his tug.

MR. JAMES F. HALIDAY, an old and respected citizen of Washington, died in that city, yesterday. He was formerly Collector of Taxes. He was a printer by profession, and, once, foreman of Gen. Force's office, and of the Congressional Globe office.

SPECIAL POLICEMAN. -Mr. Orlando Wood has been appointed by the Mayor, a special policeman, and has the preservation of good order at the Railroad depots, especially under his charge.

MEXICAN NEWS .- We are indebted to a lady friend for late numbers of the Mexican Stardard, printed in the city of Mexico; and for a late file of the Rio Grande Courier, printed in Brownsville, Texas.

HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY.—The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held to night-see WINTER is here-with ice and snow. This morning, the wind, though from the South, was very cold. Remember the poor!

WATCH HOUSE. -There was but one lodger at the Watch House last night, and he was released from jail some three or four days ago.

POLICE REPORT-MAYOR'S OFFICE. - Henry Hines, for an assault on an old man named Cornelius Johnson, was fined and discharged. MAGISTRATES' OFFICE. -There were no cases of a criminal character at the Magistrates offices this morning.

A WASHINGTON BOOK STORE.-Every article that is sold in stores can be obtained in Alexandria, and bought here, too, at rates much cheaper than in most other cities, in consequence of the cheap freights to this port, and of the low rents, and moderate clerk salaries now ruling; it is consequently to the advantage of all the residents of the city or of the country adjoining, to make their purchases here. Some, however, will still go to Washington on shopping expeditions, and if they will spend their money away from home, they should at least spend it with reliable gentlemen, and such the young Messrs. Andrew B. Coyle and W. Lenox Towers, who have lately opened, at No. 314, Pennsylvania avenue, a book, stationery and engraver's store, are acknowledged to be. These young gentlemen are well and generally known in this city, and all who visit their splendid new store, will be sure to meet with "courteous attention and upright dealing."
